Dan Johansson, 85 McConkey Drive.

Mr. Johansson asked the board to consider putting the Ambulance Project on the next agenda to let the community know where the project stands, as well as their future plans. Also, Mr. Johansson commented on the parking situation at Sol Feinstone Elementary School on Election Day. Ms. Ryan asked Ms. Slook to look into the situation, and offer the Township parking lot as an alternative on future election days.

Mike Tierney, 428 Brownsburg Road West, commented on Ms. Slook's letter to the Dolington residents explaining that the Township could not vouch for Mr. Tierney's Engineers since they were not hired by the Township. Mr. Tierney stated Ms. Slook referred to his Engineers as "unqualified". Ms. Eberle responded by saying that she has read Ms. Slook's letter and it did not state the Engineers were unqualified. Ms. Eberle reiterated the Township would not vouch for or endorse engineers and that were not hired by the township.

PLANNING AND ZONING ISSUES

Schumacher Zoning Hearing Board Application, 1240 Washington Crossing Memorial Boulevard

Ed Murphy, Esq. provided an overview of the application requesting a variance from the required number of parking spaces and relief from installation of a loading berth. Ms. Eberle responded that there was a preliminary meeting with Township staff and it was determined at that time that the community shopping center use would be used. Following discussion, the Board decided not to take a stand at this time. The Board requested Mr. Kuhns to attend the Zoning Hearing Board meeting and apprise them that there are eight parking spots to the rear along the neighboring property line.
