RE: MONTHLY POLICE REPORT

DRUG TAKE-BACK

June 3, as reported last month UMT contributed 115 pounds to the national Drug Takeback event. The count on this date released the figures collected in Bucks County as 10,122.45 pounds. Once again Bucks County was #1 in the state for collecting expired drugs.

DARE

May 23, annual DARE “Fun Day” was held for the sixth grade students. Assisting Officers Walter practiced rolling finger prints and identifying themselves, Officer Carcaci demonstrated vehicles and equipment used for emergency responses and Officer Crawford had the students use the “impairment goggles” to show the effects of alcohol usage.

June 1, my 26th graduation of a DARE class was held at SFES. 92 sixth graders successfully completed the curriculum. MDJ Petrucci, Officer Crawford along with Officers Fuchs and Murphy (DAREn the Lion) and this writer awarded certificates and assorted goodies to the graduates.

MOTOR CARRIER TASK FORCE

June 12, the team met on RT 32 at Lookout Park for a half-day session due to vacations of the enforcement team. During the detail 6 commercial vehicles were stopped yield numerous written warnings with no citation or vehicles taken out of service.
